The Memorial Society of British Columbia is a membership-based, consumer group protecting and advocating for families planning funerals for 50 years.

Benefits

- preferred pricing on funerals
- free help with planning
- record your wishes
- protect your family from predatory practices
- peace of mind
- less stress for those you leave behind

Price List

The following is a summary of maximum prices for seven typical funerals. Prices include BPCPA fee, Memorial Society's records fee, taxes and Death Certificate.

All prices include: consultation with family, completing and filing documents, obtaining all permits, transferring body to funeral home, vehicles (transfer and hearse if required), staff and administration facilities. They do not include optional out of pocket expenses for the funeral home such as flowers, obituaries, clergy, musicians, church/chapel/hall rentals, etc.

For a detailed price list on these and other goods and services please visit our website:

www.memorialsocietybc.org

and click on the button marked "Prices". There you'll find a selection of urns, caskets and other merchandise specially priced for Members – these are optional.
